CAPABILITY OFFERING

ACTIVE RISK MANAGER (ARM)

ARM is an enterprise risk management platform that delivers visibility to all risk related information across the organization to improve financial, operational and strategic performance. It's easy-to-use, web-based with multiple user interfaces, promotes adoption and helps infuse a risk management-driven culture — transforming risk management from a capability into a competitive advantage.

ACTIVE RISK SERVICES

The Active Risk Services team specializes in risk-centric consulting and education for all stages of the enterprise risk management life cycle:

- Implementation Services
- Deployment Services
- Technical Services
- Training Services

ARM HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY IMPLEMENTED TO SUPPORT PROGRAMS WITHIN THE FOLLOWING GOVERNMENT AGENCIES:

- U.S. Air Force
 - National Aeronautics and Space Administration
 - Missile Defense Agency
 - Department of Homeland Security
 - Sandia National Laboratories
 - National Reconnaissance Organization
 - Federal Aviation Administration
 - Lockheed Martin
