

LeAntha D. Sumpter

Office of the Secretary of Defense

Special Assistant to Director, Defense Procurement and Acquisition Policy

Ms. Sumpter is the Special Assistant to the Director, Defense Procurement and Acquisition Policy in the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology & Logistics) responsible for two acquisition areas. She is detailed to the Army as the Purchase Card Joint Program Manager, while also being assigned as the Unique Identification (UID) Program Manager for the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology & Logistics).

Prior to this assignment, Ms. Sumpter was the Assistant Deputy Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition Reform). Her areas of policy responsibility included commercial, performance-based and R&D acquisition, past performance, government property, performance-based payments, and the single process initiative.

Prior to assignment at OSD, Ms. Sumpter held a variety of positions with the Navy and NASA including: contracting officer for the Sparrow, Harpoon, SLAM and Tomahawk weapons systems; head of contracts policy for the Naval Air Systems Command; and, as program analyst for the Deputy Commander for Acquisition at NAVAIR responsible for enterprise-wide acquisition reinvention.

Ms. Sumpter holds a Masters in Public Administration from George Mason University.